CAUSE

On November 17, 2010, Romero will be released from custody. His case manager at Federal Correctional Complex, Lompoc, California, reported that Romero is seeking relocation from the District of New Jersey to the Central District of California (CD/CA). However, CD/CA will only accept supervision of his case if the conditions of his supervision are modified as indicated in the attached Probation Form 49, Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Probation or Extend Term of Supervision. The presentence report states that Romero has an extensive history of abusing crack cocaine; the addition of the special conditions will facilitate adequate supervision of the offender when he is released to the community.

Respectfully submitted,

By: Denise Morales
U.S. Probation Officer
Date: 10/16/09
